I Claim Peace

I stand on the whole and Holy ground of that which I am.

I claim peace as my birthright,
and as my natural way of being.

I, and I alone declare peace.

I dedicate my existence to peace, joy and harmony.

From this day forth I shall be an emanation of peace.

I am no longer dependent on the thoughts, emotions and actions of others for my well being.

I set all beings free...

from this burden of being responsible for my peace.

I invoke the gentle power of Peace to permeate and reverberate thought all time and space.

I invite the mighty river of Peace to flow...

Through my mind, through all my body,
through all my life and through all my affairs.

I now settle into the deep Peace of my own Being.

Peace before me.

Peace behind me.

Peace to all beings.

As for me, I choose peace.
